“ I didn't know Charlie as long as I would have liked to, but I sure did enjoy the companionship we were able to share on our woods adventures and driveway chats. No matter what project I was working on, if it had to do with the woods, Charlie was always anxious to help. We cut trails, built box blinds for hunting, laid irrigation lines, and all sorts of things we enjoyed doing together. Charlie was never one to watch the work being done and really pitched in. He seemed to be happiest when operating his skid steer clearing up property, cutting a trail or digging a pond. We had so many great chats about property, hunting and life in general. I was lucky to know Charlie and he will be missed.

“ R.I.P. sweet Buddy! You were the best dad a girl could wish to have. You always worked hard, provided, and never let us go without. I will always cherish our moments especially the last 8 min you were here with us holding my hand. No more suffering and pain free Buddy! Love you to the moon and back                      Your wings were ready but my heart was not

“ I had no brothers so Charlie boy was like my older brother. He was a gentle and kind soul and I loved him. I will miss everything about him. I'm so glad he's at peace and out of pain.

“ Charlie boy was one of my favorite cousins to play with.Also Charlie Boys parents put in a swing set I loved this huge toy. Charlie boy and I loved to roll down a perfect hill at the Wilson’s next to my house. Of course we were told not to. Charlie broke his arm. Again we were told do not roll down that hill at the Wilson’s. Of course we rolled again. And again Charlie Boy broke his arm again. I think that kept us out of neighbors yards.
I have a photo of Charlie Boy and me dancing together at a New Years party at my house. We look like twins at that age maybe 7?
I am trying to find that photo to post it. I am not that good on this computer but will keep trying to find this photo of us.
Again I say Charlie Boy was top of my list of friends Our families were blessed because 4 of our families lived close to each other. Me the Broom,s the Scott’s, the Landers and the Barnett’s.
