Loy Rainey McCard, of Ashburn, Georgia; two sons Keith J. McCard (Peggy) of Moravian Falls, NC and Mike A. McCard (Jane) of Macon, GA. Curtis was a loving husband, father, grandfather, uncle and friend; all who knew him will miss him.

The family would like to thank the neighbors and friends for their love and support. The family is especially grateful to the 8 East Care Team and Staff at the Carl Vinson VA Medical Center in Dublin, Georgia; for their outstanding care, kindness and support during the past year; you lifted Curtis's spirits and the food you brought him was always a hit!

“ The MCards were like family to me as a young boy. Lived one house down. I still remember Curtis would jump his motorcycle of the carport for us. I thought he was Evil Knievel.. Loy was my mommas best friend. What a great childhood we had. Love you all . Amen

“ Sending my condolences from the the Rainey family in California. Uncle Curtis was a great man. I still think back to all the time I spent at Lake Sinclair was I was little boy. Uncle Curtis taught me so much, like how to ride an ATV, waterski drive a pontoon boat, which I crashed into the dock and most importantly shoot a rifle. He would take me to the store and tell me to throw whatever I wanted in the cart. Those memories will last forever. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the entire McCard family during these toughest of times. We love you all! Stay strong!!
