“ Jim, you were the first person here in Georgia that I can say was truly my friend. I fell in love with you and your wife because of the way you showed loved to her. I admired the love you showed your family. I moved here from Chicago and you made me feel so welcomed. You gave me the name Sunshine, and I will keep that name in my heart and each and every time I see the Sun Shine I will think of you. You were such a funny guy, you were always able to make me smiling when I wanted to kill you know who we were working for. You have left a legacy in my heart that no one will ever be able to replace. I still can't believe you are gone!! I can't stop crying. Just to hear your voice one more time would make my heart fill with joy. Darryl my fiancé and I just want to let your family know that we loved him and you all just as much. Love you friend Yolanda your forever Sunshine!

“ I love you dad ! He was an amazing husband, father, grandfather and all around man in general. I was sitting here looking through photo albums and found pictures of me and him and it made me smile. I will always be his poota poota or poot as he called me. I remember him explaining to me that the reason he called me poot was because he called me his scooter pooter when I was a baby and I couldn't say it so I would say poota poota and it just stuck from there ! A memory that makes me smile is he laughed at me so hard when i was around 7 or 8 and i told him i wanted to take my cock (gun) and go hunting with him so he took me and of course I did not sit still or quiet and when he came back home he laughed and told my mom I wouldnt stop talking for nothing and he said he wasnt taking me hunting anymore and needless to say i never went hunting with him again...lol. I will miss his smile and his ornery demeanor, I will miss his words of wisdom and his honest truth. My father may be gone but he most definitely will not be forgotten he will always be in my heart and his memory will live on ! I love you dad and I will hold you in my heart and cherish our memories until we meet again !

“ I met Jim when i was working for Dart Transit. We spent a lot of time on the phone keeping each other Company while the miles rolled by. If you were having a bad day he was always there to make your day be better with his great sense of humor. We spent some time running miles down the road together and he was always very helpful in any way possible. He loved his family with all his heart and was always bragging on his Family. He will be greatly missed. He was one of the best friends a Truck Driver could ever have on the road!! Love ya brother!!

“ Mr. Addison, I'm at a loss.
You were so many things to so many people, You took me under your wing and helped me out, You always had the answers i needed, and the wisdom to help guide me through everything, Not just with being a safer, better driver, But with life.I can still remember the night we first met as if it was yesterday. I always viewed you as a Great friend, A mentor, Someone i could aspire to be like, You were like a dad to me. I knew we had time's where we wouldn't get to talk much when we were both driving,

But we always seemed to have a way to always run into each other, Last time i got to see you and catch up with you was last june in Laredo, we spent a couple hour's catching up, and it was awesome. Had i known that was the last time we actually got to hangout for as long as we did i would've made sure i stayed even longer, We got to meet up a couple more time's since then but we never could catch up long as we both only seemed to have a few mins before we had to go it was always 30 minutes here, 45 minutes there. I wish i had came by or called more. Thats something i will always wish i could change. I will truly miss you and wish i could talk to you one more time.

Ms.Addison i am dearly sorry .. Mr.Addison seemed to always have a smile on his face when we would stop and talk He would always smile when he was saying he was heading back home to you. No matter how much the company irked him that week knowing he got to come back to you always made it better. He would always brag about how he got to come home to you every week and how he had plans from as far as i can remember about leaving OTR, so he could just come home and stay there everyday and spend it with you and the kids/grandkids.

Jamie, I am sorry, I remember the day you introduced me to Mr. Addison, At first i thought he didn't like me and i was nervous to meet him, Because i didn't want to make a bad first impression, And then next thing i knew he was a friendly face laughing along with Ms.Addison as we sat at the kitchen table just talking, Then the next day i got some of ms.addison egg salads sandwiches and honestly never had a better one since. Never knew how big of an impact Mr.Addison would have on my life when i first met him, But i want to thank you for introducing me to Mr. Addison and Ms.Addison, and letting them give me some great memories to look back on and smile with.
