“ When I walked into the wellness center at ORMC I saw this LOVELY LADY with a big smile-Nelle. She always had that smile and a hug to give. She gave me a book "Jesus Calling" marked with her favorite messages. She was loved!! Jo Scheff

“ Heaven gained an angel on Saturday and I'm so blessed to have known her. My Aunt Cathy introduced me to Mrs. Nelle while visiting her Father-in-Law (Granddaddy) at the Green Acres Nursing Home in Milledgeville, GA. I already felt like I knew (and loved) Mrs. Nelle from hearing her stories from my Aunt about their adventure together creating a children's book, "If A Frog Had A Santa". My Aunt is the illustrator and described to me the passion Mrs. Nelle had telling her story and encouraging my Aunt to bring it alive on the page in color. You can enjoy this beautiful collaboration of kind and descriptive words with whimsical and bright illustrations here=><http://amzn.to/2srRINs>

When I met Mrs. Nelle last Fall, I could have visited and talked with her for days. At times I honestly felt the Holy Spirit was sitting right there next to us and speaking through her. Those that know me know I wouldn't typically share such intimate thoughts, so that should tell you something about my encounter with Mrs. Nelle and how powerful it was. Near the end of our visit, I found words poured out of my mouth about some past pains I had experienced. While I have moved on, I still had a desire to share this with her. She listened intently, comforted me when appropriate. She then told me to open up one of her cabinets, reach in a box and pull out a book. The book was Jesus Calling by Sarah Young. She had a beautifully handwritten note in the middle of the book:

"Hope these precious words will "lift" you, as they "lift" us each day for help and forgiveness. Great pages to read: January 18, January 31, August 14, August 20 and October 28. You, too, will find your favorite pages. May god bless you and those you love."

Mrs. Nelle knew just what I needed. She didn't need to say anything, her actions spoke volumes. Although my visit with Mrs. Nelle was too brief, she has touched my life so dearly. And I know how much she has touched so many, including my Aunt Cathy.

Although I can't be there in person today to celebrate Mrs. Nelle's incredible life, I am in there in spirit. This morning as I opened my book (Jesus Calling) and read the devotion for June 14, the scriptures referenced include Jeremiah 31:3; Isaiah 61:10; 1 Peter 2:9. I feel 1 Peter 2:9 is so Mrs. Nelle: "But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light." Mrs. Nelle helped call me out of the darkness that day so I could see His wonderful light.

Rest in Peace Mrs. Nelle and thank you.

“ Kay and family, So sorry for the loss of your Mom. Having the privilege of her being with you for this long wonderful life is a blessing. Prayers to you and the family.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family at this time of bereavement. She must have imparted a wealth of knowledge during her time spent on this earth. In the future many of the wisdom that she impacted you will reflect on. May this thought comfort you from God's word the bible as you deal with the loss. Notice the blessing revealed at Revelations 21:4 “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. May God's words bring comfort to you and the whole family at this sad time
