Raymond Waller graduated from Central High School and attended Georgia College and State University.

Raymond was employed at Fowler Flemister Concrete for the last 27 years.

Raymond will be remembered for his love of family. Being blessed to live in the same town as his nieces and nephew, he never missed an event that Helen Marie, John Gus, or Eliza participated in which has carried on to his great nieces and nephews.

He loved searching for arrowheads and was very educated in the history of native Americans and also enjoyed metal detecting for Civil War artifacts. His weekends were spent fishing and walking his beloved dogs.

Raymond Waller is survived by his two brothers and one sister; Carl L. Waller, III (Susan) of Marietta, Georgia; Helen W. Pursley (Gus) of Milledgeville; and George T. Waller (MaryBeth) of Foley, Alabama; six nieces and nephews; Carrie W. Weatherford (Jason) of Roswell, Georgia, Helen Marie P. Davenport (McKenzie) of Milledgeville, John A. Pursley, IV (Jean) of Milledgeville, Carl L. Waller, IV, Eliza P. Smith (Garrett) of Milledgeville, Molly W. Price (Scott) of Marietta, Georgia; and 11 great nieces and nephews.

“ So saddened to hear of Raymond’s passing. His sweet spirit will be missed by many. Raymond had a quick smile for everyone and was so very kind. I enjoyed his quick wit and friendship in our work at Department of Corrections. May God comfort you as only He can during this difficult time.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Raymond’s passing. Being Edwin’s sister, as far back as my memories go, Raymond is in them. He and Edwin drug me around snake hunting in the creeks around our neighborhood in Macon many times. He was a good, sweet soul.

“ Earl Waller Jr.

Raymond was my first cousin on my Dad’s side. Jeanne and I always had a great time visiting Carl, Raymond, Helen and George as well as Uncle Carl and Aunt Helen.

“ Carl, George, Helen and family,

Steve and I were so sorry to hear about Raymonds’ passing. I remember him loving the outdoors and wanting to be a Forest Ranger when he was about 12. He was always so soft spoken and had such a gentle soul. Thoughts and prayers to you all.

“ I was saddened to hear of the passing of Raymond, my friend for over 30 years. We were actually running buddies and went to so many races over the years and most important was our fellowship with each other while running. He was a special friend and even though we lived in different cities over the years he was always that special friend. He loved his family and would always talk about them with an endearing heart. I cherish the memories we had together and my heart goes out to his family. If we all could be like Raymond, what a special world we could live in with kindness, compassion and the love of all people and animals. He was that special friend and I am a better person because I knew him and spent time with him.

Raymond and I talked about our faith often and I know he is at the right hand of Jesus and with his parents as well. I'll forever miss our calls and recently had lunch with him in Milledgeville and we did a lot of reminiscing of our times together.

God bless the family and our great friends.

“ My heart goes out to all of the Waller and Pursley family in the loss of Raymond. I was so sorry to learn the sad news of his passing. It is a blessing that Helen never had to experience the loss of child and now she and Raymond are together once again. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I shall be forever grateful for the many happy hours Raymond shared with my son, Edwin. My feelings were not hurt in the least when Edwin said to me recently, “Mama, other than Kathy (his wife), I think I love Raymond better than anyone else in the world.” Our good memories of Raymond will be with us always.

“ What a shock - just received a Christmas card today from Raymond. We worked together at FDU in Milledgeville for several years. We had the same birthday but I was 10 years older. We shared the date by exchanging birthday cards every year and Christmas cards. I remember Raymond loved his family and cherished the time spent with them. We had not seen each other in several years but I always looked forward to his cards and the note he always wrote. What a precious person he was. He is in heaven now with his Saviour. Nell Bryant

“ Beginning in kindergarten, Raymond and I were partners in crime roaming the creeks and forests off Nancelon Circle in Macon and sometimes as far as the Ocmulgee River. We collected all manner of turtles, snakes and other things that little boys find so interesting. I am sure none of our parents ever knew the extent of our adventures.

As we grew older, we became fascinated with Indian artifacts and spent many hot, summer afternoons trudging around muddy fields all over Central Georgia and at my family's farm in Crisp County.

Raymond was the kind of friend that no matter how long it had been since I talked to him, I knew that if I needed him for anything all I had to do was call him and he would be there.

I was proud to know Raymond and proud to call him my best friend. Raymond, you will be sorely missed!
