“ Suzanne Stark was my beloved sister. Kind, generous and loving. She loved the Lord with all her heart. She had the most amazing church family and other dear friends we were so privileged to meet during the time of her passing. Our loss was truly Heaven's gain. Chris and Bob Pilgrim

“ Knew Miss Suzy from the nursing home where she decided and my Mother resides. She was always so kind, loved talking to her and her pretty smile with just a touch of sadness in it especially after having to give up her sweet dog. I will miss her so much! Glad she is rejoicing in heaven pain free and happy!

“ Suzy and I had a special friendship, we were mischievous, we laughed and we cried. We have shared seventeen years of happy times and sad times. Suzy's brother-in-law asked me today "how'd she collect so many things in that tiny room". Well let me tell you, we worked at it, we decorated the walls, the shelves, the door, the bed, the bathroom, the closet, her hats, her wheel chair, and nothing was sacred. We were scolded for feeding the birds, which to our dismay also attracted other critters. I needed a purpose and Suzy needed me. Suzy, you are forever in my memory.
