“ Wilbur and Ray, I know you are going to miss Alan. He was just a little fellow when you built our first house but I remember his love for the outdoors, how much he looked up to his big brother and how much he loved his dad! He was a precious little boy who grew up to be a good man. God takes the best for himself, sometimes. My prayers are with you. Patti Rushin

“ Alan, what can I say other than you had such a wonderful spirit. You and I laughed so much when we were younger. You were such a wonderful father and adored your daughter. Your mom adored both you and Ray and now you are with her. I will always remember the good times. You left us all too soon, but your light will always shine! Rest in peace Alan. Hi Leslie, I am Kimi Watts, Alan's wife. Alan was diagnosed a year ago with renal cell carcinoma. By the time he was diagnosed the cancer had already spread to his lung. No treatment seemed to stop the spread of cancer but he didn't go down without a fight. How are connected to Alan?

Thanks for telling me Kimi, and my condolences to you and your family. Alan was a friend from years ago when I lived in Milledgeville. He was in the same hospital that my father was in; Alan from a wreck, and my father was having his stomach removed for cancer. It's been years since I'd spoken to my old friend, I had a hunch that he was happily married and was glad for y'all. I got to bfriends with his brother Ray after seeing family so much after the wreck; I thot of Ray as my big brutha too. God bless you all, Kimi. Sorry for your loss. Praying forstrength and love from God for you.

“ To my dearest daddy and all family and friends reading this, My father was the strongest, most loving and hard headed human i have ever met and he meant absolutely everything to me. He raised me all on his own and i couldn't be more thankful and appreciative. No one will ever understand the love that me and daddy shared simply because we were so much alike that we were more than father and daughter, but best friends. He taught me to be strong and tough at all times but not only that. He taught me how to be the best that i can be. In our household there was never a time that you could say you "can't" do something. Everything was possible in my daddy's eyes. No one could have raised me better than my father. I've never had much of a mother figure, so with my daddy being gone I feel as if I've lost everything. However, I also look at it like this, he may be gone, but he will forever live through me. I will live and love for him. My father was and always will be my purpose. With all that being said, I will lastly say that if you knew my father, at some point i know he made you laugh or smile. That is who is was. God grant us all the strength to get through this tradgedy, Amen.

“ Where To Start: We were sweet hearts thirty years ago and I feel in love with you then. I thought of you often through the years and always wondered What If. And then one day my What If came true. Thank you for everything you did. Thank you for loving me so sweet, and taking care of me, and thank you for Us and the past five years we have shared together. There will never be another Alan and now all I can do is to pray to God to help heal my pain! I Love You and will always cherish our time and memories together.
