“ Sherry & Family,
I was so sorry to hear about Mr. Alex. I have not seen him in a long time, but I do remember all the times I would run into him and he had something funny to say. Please remember all the good times you spent with your Father. Thinking of all of you at this time.###imported-begin###Paula Bevins King###imported-end##

“ Vivian, Ricky, Sherry and Family,

Having been where you are all now, I know your hearts are heavy and the tears are flowing, but relish in your cherished memories during this time of sorrow.

I will always treasure the friendship and memories that our two families have shared, and will remember Mr. Alex with a big smile, a joke, and all his crazy nonsense. His jovial personality is what made him "Mr. Alex" to all who knew and loved him.

May God wrap each of you in His loving arms to help ease the pain, during this difficult time in your life.

You will all be in my thoughts and prayers.

I would like to share this sweet and loving poem with each of you. It is one of my favorite. May time heal your sorrow; May friends ease your pain; May peace replace heartache; May warmest memories remain.

Love and hugs to all,
