“ Alice her mama and daddy and her sisters lived across the road from me in Toomsboro. We went to school and played together in the afternoons in summer. Alice moved a way to go to cosmetology school. She did really well as a cosmetologist for many years. She was good at it. When we were grown or so we thought and married we lived next door for a while. She was a loving mother was good with her babies. I remember watching her hold them and feed them with their bottles. She was a natural young mother. Was able to see her when she would come visit her sisters. We would talk about pgrowing up as if we were still there. She was a sweet lady. As she got older she looked just like her grandma Hines to me who she loved dearly. She will be missed .
