“ What a joy to have had Alice as a friend! She was one in a million. She never met a stranger and she loved everyone. I only knew Alice about 6 years but we had some really good times...she was just a delight to spend time with, we put puzzles together, we laughed, we sang, , and we prayed. She was a very dear friend. Look forward to seeing her again one day! Love & prayers, Bonnie Garmany

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family in this time of loss. Alice was a beautiful person who will be greatly missed. She was a very dear friend to our family especially to our father, Sam Williams. We had a great love for her and shared many fun times together.
