“ Years of holiday dinners at the Mains with Alma telling us stories of her and Maddy's life will fondly remain with us. She always had a smile for us and a genuine interest in our and our children's lives. She will be missed; may she rest in peace.###imported-begin##Angela Cardoso & David Woodley, Catherine & Larry Sweat###imported-end##

“ Alma has a special place in our hearts having spent many hours in her presence thru the years, talking on the back porch, dinner together and listening to her humerous stories. She always took an interest in our family and knew them all. We will miss her but know that she is at peace with God.###imported-begin##Carol & David Cardoso###imported-end##

“ We are so sorry for your lose. I certainly know how you feel. Mom will miss her terribly as they were such good "phone" friends always telling eachother gossip of some sort. I only wish mom got down there to see her. I offered to fly down there, but she refused. I feel this is better for her anyway. Time does heal the hurt and the memories will always be with you. Love to the family.##imported-begin##April and Bruce Prunty##imported-end##

“ Nana Alma will always hold a very special place in my heart. Coming into her room early in the morning to pinch pennies, kicking her feet, and her kicking mine under the dinner table, and all of her countless stories about her childhood and my own that used to make me laugh until my stomach hurt. It saddens me greatly to think that she is gone. I will always be thinking of her and the good times we had. ##imported-begin##Andrew Main##imported-end##

“ Alma meant so much to the kids and me. We will miss her in so many ways. She always had a cheerful and positive word for us and could always make us laugh! We loved all her stories about her sisters and growing up in Brooklyn around the corner from Jackie Gleason. We loved to hear about Bethpage and the bungalow out East.

She always had the latest scoop from the trashy newspapers. We loved it when she said "Holy hat!" She was very good at slipping you a $5 bill just when you needed it. We loved her pot roast, mashed potatoes, and red cabbage. And she was a good influence on us as we grew up and learned that life wasn't always easy or fair, but if you kept your sense of humor and a positive outlook you could get through just about anything.

But most of all, she was the best Nana in the world and we will love her always.
