“ I miss you more then anything momma, they say time heals all but I can tell you thats not true I'm still pretty broken. I'm in Macon right now I'ma go by the house when I leave here. I guess im seeking some type of closure or peace or comfort. Probably just gonna cry more and numb my heart a little more. Either way I love you and I miss you so much, Sheila has been here for me since you left and Lisa well she will never change but thats another story I love you momma.

“ Words cannot express the sorrow that I feel for you. No parent should ever have to lose a child. Our loving Creator knows how hard this is on you. We are told at Ezekiel 18:22 “for I do not take any delight in the death of someone dying, is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord .” As you can see, He does not like death anymore than we do. It is not his will for us to die which is why He has given us the hope of everlasting life! (Psalms 37:9-11, 29; Rev. 21:3, 4). As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2Cor 1:3).

“ Even though I know you're in a better place still I'm so heart broken about you leaving us! You've helped me make it through so ruff times you helped me name my youngest child and you made working at Friendly Gus allot easier. You had the best sense of humor :) I love you and I'll never forget you!

“ "Red" was real. She was real about life, love, happiness, sorrow and everything in between. She had a way of finding the good in everything, or at least laughing about it, and was the strongest woman I think I have ever known. I'm blessed that she was a part of my life and I was given the chance to have her as a friend. I learned so much about tolerance and patience from her. She will be greatly missed. Our prayers and thoughts go out to the family and the ones that were close to her. Will always think of her when I see a monarch butterfly! Twilla & David Berl

“ Long list I don't know where to start. I'll go with the happiest one I can think of at the moment. Mom came and got me and Hank for the summer. You came to see us after work one night, sitting in the living room you pulled off your shoe I saw your sock and told you they needed to go to church you looked and we laughed for about thirty minutes over your "holy socks"..... I miss you wish you well in heaven know no more tears no more fears no more pain and know always I will see you again...

“ My dear Aunt Andrea has completed the race called life. She lived her life as if there was no tomorrow. She had a beautiful smile that I will miss most of all. But as all her family and friends know that she had cheated death a couple of times before and we always said that she would be late or miss her own funeral, well lets just see if she makes it to her final celebration that we all will have for her. LOL

“ My life long friend and sister I never had.... You're in the arms of the angel's now, no more suffering or pain! Most will feel it was way too soon, GOD is never too soon or too late. We will miss you dearly! But this is not goodbye forever... just for now. I will be waiting to see you again one day, over the rainbow and at the end of that old dirt road! See ya, Margie
