“ *Carlene and family,
We are so sorry to hear about Andy. The pain of losing a child is very hard no matter what age they are. I do think the lord picked you to be touched by the gentle way these children always loved people and there family. Randy taught me things that no one could ever teach. We will keep our prayers going to give all of you comfort and lots of the good memories until you all meet again. MM

To the Williams family, May God give you strength and comfort. He was so dreamy and his voice was so beautiful. My heart soared when at 13 I wrote to him and he sent me a beautiful autographed picture, which I promptly hung on my bedroom wall. I treasured that photo and still have it today. He seemed like a genuine loving and caring man and I know he will be missed greatly. I know ' i can't get used to losing you--- I'll always live my whole life through, loving you." He brought so much joy and I was so lucky to see his holiday show when he was on tour in Hartford CT. He meant so much to me and I'll always play his music. He will always be around. God bless and keep you. My prayers are his. A true fan---Margaret Moore 9/27/12
