“ *My Sweet Debbie, Oh, my goodness, I just read of Andy's new adventure into the loving arms of Christ! I will always remember the great times we had "tail-gating" at the Dawgs games (me with our beloved curtis), and, of course, the Lake parties with the kegs and great food. Many wonderful memories .. I am profoundly sorry for your loss. I hope Andy was not suffering. Debbie, I remember the evening I returned from South Carolina with my deceased son's shoes in my hands and the first person who greeted me at my front door was little 8 year old Ridge. Debbie, I always admired you and wished I could be more like you! You are in my thoughts and prayers. If you ever get the time or feel like contacting me, here is my info.: Pat Friend ... “ Debbie and Ridge, Mike and I just heard that Andy passed away. I am so sorry to hear this and we will keep you and the children in our prayers. We both worked at the prison with Andy for many years. I'm so sorry we lost touch although we did think about him often. There are too many fond memories to share here but please know that our hearts are with you.

“ I’ve known Andy since we were kids our parents were best friends We spent many nights together while our parents played cards. Andy was the most popular kid in school and I was a nerd. He was a mentor that brought me out of my shell and helped me become a person everyone wanted to be around. My college experience was because of him. I became most popular because of the influence and determination he helped me with I’ll never forget the influence he made on my life. Debbie was also part of that experience May you RIP my truly best friend. 🙏❤️ Frank Veal

“ Since I was 12, Debbie worked at Southern Association Services with my Mom. She and Andy were UGA sweethearts and to my young viewpoint were the coolest couple ever. As I grew up and went on with my career, marriage and life, they were always there and stayed in contact with my Mom and friends of Southern Association Services. When my Mom passed 3 years ago, my friendship with Debbie and Andy have been a bridge over the loss. I spoke to them frequently and was blessed to speak with Andy earlier this year on one of my 'bad days'. He gave me words of comfort to cheer me and in his Georgia accent was kind and funny as he always was. I will miss knowing he is on this earth and hope the light he gave to us who knew him will provide warmth to Debbie and Ridge during this difficult time. Love you Debbie.

“ Sharing our little beach, spending hours on the lake and docks with family and mutual friends, cookouts, trips to Beach Fest, the goose fiasco, losing his new reel and rod....really big fish! So many wonderful memories with the best next door neighbors ever. I loved him..we both did. I'm so sorry, Debbie and Ridge, for your loss. He will be sorely missed. May God comfort you during this difficult time and the days ahead.
