“ My husband and I would like to convey our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of your beloved Ann. Words are sometimes hard to express at moments like this, but we truly understand the pain of losing one so dear. We just wanted to share with you something that has helped us get through a similar time in our lives. Psalm 34:18 reassures us that we are never alone, and John 11:14-44 shows us the experience of Jesus, resurrecting Lazarus, here on earth, before the very eyes of those he loved. We can only imagine the tears of joy when we too are reunited with our dear loved ones again. (John 5:28,29) Ann will surely be missed by many of those whose lives she shared, remember those experiences and learn from them, hold them close to your hearts and cherish them. May you find comfort from those who surround you at this very difficult time. Our condolences to all of you.##imported-begin##PJ##imported-end##

“ I was so saddened to learn of the death of Ann. During my twenty years of employment at Georgia College, Ann was so helpful to me. She knew more than anyone in Admissions. She was always so pleasant to work with. It was great to have coffee with her when she cam to work in Nursing. She was always a joy, and I will miss her.

Love,

“ Sadly, I haven't seen Ms. Shadwell in several years. I remember her as a sweet, giving person with a great sense of humor. When I was in high school, I spent as much time or more at her house as I did at my own. I love that big, old house and I always felt welcome there. I loved the way the family decorated at Christmas. I attended Midnight Mass with them and delighted in the Madrigal Dinner. When I got married, Mr. and Mrs. Shadwell had their restaurant and gave Don and me our rehearsal dinner as a wedding gift. So many precious memories. I've been blessed to have had the Shadwells in my life. I love you all.##imported-begin##Shirley Bentley Smith##imported-end##
