Anne George Wheat McCollum, Milledgeville, GA passed away Friday, May 1, 2020 at the age of 90. Born in Hardwick, Georgia to William H. George and Annie Laurie Hawkins George, Anne graduated from Midway High School. After earning a Georgia Dental Hygienist License in 1959, she worked in the dental profession for thirty years.

Anne was an active member of Vineville Baptist Church and loved leading the American Legion Unit 3 Auxiliary as the organization's president. Anne's true joy came from her favorite hobby – ballroom dancing. When Anne hit the dance floor, she was ageless and vibrant. She was undeniably the star of the show any time the music played.

She is survived by one son, Ken (Cheryl) of Columbia, South Carolina; the late Larry (Faye) Wheat of Milledgeville, Georgia. Four grand-daughters, Kathleen (Keith) Crownover of Clemson, South Carolina; Kimberly Wheat of Charleston, South Carolina; Leslie (Dave) Wheat Roberts, Columbia, South Carolina and Lori Wheat, Manhattan, New York. Anne has two sisters, Carrie

Cox of Milledgeville, Georgia and the late Marie Horton of Milledgeville, Georgia. Anne was predeceased by a brother, Alec George of Milledgeville, Georgia. She also leaves behind Eleanor Martin, her niece, best friend, and occasional “partner in crime”. Anne is additionally survived by four great grand-children, Will Wheat Kirk, Columbia, South Carolina and Kara, Tyler, and Chloe Crownover of Clemson, South Carolina and numerous nieces and nephews.

While her family will miss her effervescent presence, cheeky sense of humor, and youthful glow, they are all happy to know she has now reunited with her favorite dance partner, her beloved Bill. Strike up the band, Bill has been waiting a long time to get back on that dancefloor with Anne.

“ I was saddened to hear of Anne's passing. She was a vibrant person, very sweet and a great friend. We were neighbors at John-Wesley Villas for about six years. I already was missing her with her move to Milledgeville. I hope that your memories of her will help the family through their loss. Bernice Snow

“ So many wonderful, happy memories of Aunt Anne. In early childhood I spent many Sundays for lunch after church with their family. We were out to lunch together one day at what used to be Cleo's and two men kept pointing and seemed to be talking about us. Turned out they were sure we were daughter/mother we had the same "noses". Funny they thought so; not funny of all body parts. A good laugh was had by all. She took me to the eye Dr. once and the dilation blinded me. I could not see my face in the mirror so she picked out my glasses; I could not see my feet, she picked shoes for me. It is my fault I allowed myself to become less involved; that's the cross I'll bear. Recently, Jack & I were in Macon and Joni called to see if we'd go check on Anne at the nursing home. She had been having a little trouble with her memory but when she figured who we were we talked over an hour. It was the last time I saw her in the flesh. She was a character and we all loved her to the moon and back. "So let go my soul and trust in Him. The winds and waves still know his name. Thru it all, it is well with my soul!"

“ Anne was one of the first People that I met when I moved to Georgia in 1960. I got a job as a dental assistant for Dr Charles Zattau. Anne was his hygienist. I enjoyed working with her.

“ Carrie, my memories of Ann and of you go back many years when i was just a little girl at Hardwick Christian Church, when the two of you young girls would lead us preschoolers in choruses before the worship services. I especially remember "Into my heart; come into my heart, Lord Jesus," which is an important message in song that through the years I have taught to the children in my life. I remember that my cousin Ivelyn and I admired the two of you and thought you were so pretty that we used to play "Ann and Carrie" and probably took turns being each of you. Thank you for these wonderful memories. May God bless you and comfort you in this loss. Carolyn Morgan Smith, Chris Wall's sister.
