ANNE INEZ SPIVEY BERRIER

Born 9/11/38 Died 4/22/12

Anne Inez Spivey Berrier, age 73, died on April 22, 2012 near Houston, Texas, where she had resided for the past 10 years. She had also previously lived in Hawaii, Virginia Beach and North Carolina for several years.

Her husband, Dalton P. Berrier, pre-deceased her as did her parents, Annie Lucille Taylor Spivey and Gid Brooks Spivey and her sister, Janice Spivey Bentley Fanshaw. She is survived by her daughters, Darlene (Al) Berrier Ekin and Sheryl (Tommy) Berrier Harris and seven grandchildren: Jason (Erin) Ekin; Russell Ekin; Bailey Ekin; Madison Ekin; Spencer Ekin; Nathan Harris and Kristen Harris. She is survived also by three brothers: Harold Spivey in Thomaston, Georgia; James Spivey in Mexico; Larry Spivey in Milledgeville, Georgia and one sister, Shirley Spivey, in Milledgeville, Georgia; and a number of dear cousins.

Ms. Berrier was born in Wilkinson County, Georgia and reared in Baldwin County, Georgia and attended school at Coopers School and Midway High School. She attended college in Hawaii.

She worked at J. P. Stevens Textile as an apprentice computer programmer. She met her future husband there when he worked with UNIVAC. She later worked as a pediatric nurse and census-taker. She was a wonderful seamstress and homemaker. She was artistic and creative. She also enjoyed gardening and the outdoors. Her strong will and determination to overcome adversity were an inspiration to all who knew her. She remained cheerful even after having been ill for many years.

She had a private funeral near Houston.

Expressions of sympathy can be made as donation in her name to
