“ I am sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my condolences at this painful time. Losing a loved one is distressing and as comfort is needed from family and friends, it is my hope your family will find comforting the promise at Isaiah 25:8 where we are assured that "death will be swallowed up forever." It is my hope your family will find strength to endure during the days ahead.

“ When the sad news came of Aunt Annie's passing, my heart sank until I realized that she and her older sister (my mother) were causing the angels and others to be rolling with laughter over their comedic antics. I also realized when those two got together, the entire family was in for a real treat. My heart goes out to her son Emory "Buddy" Anderson and their daughter Connie Anderson Rhodes in this sad time. My Aunt Annie will be greatly missed by her children, nephews, nieces and the many friends she had. We will see her again, along with her sisters Ethel Wilson Morton (my mother), Ruth Wilson Brooks, Grace Wilson Holcomb, Leone Wilson Simpson and her brother Wallace LeRoy Wilson. May their offspring live up the Christian (Godly) principles so beautifully demonstrated in their daily lives. Thus ends one chapter in our lives and another chapter is just beginning for their children, our cousins. Aunt Annie, we love you in life, and your death does not end our love for you.
