“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the passing of your loved one. I hope you will find comfort from the Scriptures and the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when those who have fallen asleep in death, will be restored back to life with the hope of eternal life on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessing unfolds and you are reunited with you loved one again, may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Offering sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. Death was never part of our Heavenly Father’s original purpose for mankind. In fact, in His word the Bible He calls it an enemy (1Cor. 15:26) which He promises in the very near future to do away with (Rev. 21:4,5) At that time tragedies and accidents will be a thing of the past, no one will ever get sick (Isaiah 33:24) and there will be a reuniting, a bringing back to life instead of losing (John 5:28,29) Please allow these words to be of comfort to you and give you hope. (2Cor. 1:3,4)

“ He was a warm, wonderful person. One of his favorite stories about me was the time I had finally annoyed him too much (I was probably 5 or 6 and he was 10 or 11) and he wanted to beat me with his baseball bat :-). Thankfully his dad saved me and, once we were grown, we became good friends. Friendships often have strange beginnings. Rest in peace, my friend. You will be missed.

He didn't call back.....nor did we get anymore calls about the loud music.....he was business all the way.....he was there any time he was needed.....he will be missed by many.....*

“ Cecil & I both will miss Tony very much. He was like a little brother to CC & a big brother to me. CC remembers him coming over to his house when he was barely a teen, spending time with his kids, & watching Tony grow up. I remember getting to Milledgeville to attend GA College, getting the job at The Opera House, & Tony looking after me...though he always enjoyed a good practical joke. Tony was even with CC when he bought my ring to surprise me at Christmas. The joy he took in teasing me about knowing about my gift! That is what I will remember & miss most about Tony...his ability to always make someone smile. :)
