“ I only had the pleasue of meeting Barbara a short time prior to her going away to rest.
What little time I talked with her I did enjoy.
I am glad that I had the oppertunity to meet and talk with her some.
I wish I had been able to spend more time with her and got to know her better because I have heard a lot of wonderful things about her.

“ Barbara was such a joy to be around. She was my best friend and fiercely defended those she loved. She gave freely of her love and laughter and was there to help you when you needed a hand. Her laughter will be with me always. I have so many fond memories to cherish. She was a true diamond in the rough and will be greatly missed. My heartfelt prayers will be with the family and her loved ones.###imported-begin###Susan Bostick###imported-end##
