“ I am so sorry to learn of Ben's death. I was one of his exercise buddies at Survive and Thrive. He was an inspiration to all of us. I use the walking stick that he made for me, and for all of the Survive and Thrive members. I always smile and think of his warm smile and sense of humor.

“ I love my daddy! I loved the fact that everyone had respected him. And he instilled in me to set my goals high! He was so funny and brought so much humor into my life when I thought the world was crashing down on me, he would say something out the blue and make me laugh!! It was an honor to have him as my father!

*Dear Karie,
I am so sorry for your loss. I met your dad years ago and spoke briefly with him. But I do know he was a highly respected man. There are no words any one can say to ease your pain. 😞 I pray God gives you and your family peace that surpasses all understanding.*

“ *To everyone, I was heartbroken to hear of the loss of Ben. He is together with Sandra and everyone else on that almighty cloud looking down on all of us with that great big smile of his. I cherish the time I knew him and his family, they made me feel like I was part of their family and I will never forget that. Rest in peace Ben. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
Love Joanne*

“ As Ben's next younger brother, I have fond memories of our early days. I am proud of his military service and cherish the occasional interactions we had later on in life. He and Sandra went out of their way to visit us in their little motor home while we lived in Arizona. Our older kids remember that. I had the recent privilege of speaking with him at length on the phone. He was cheerful, upbeat and inspirational in his comments. He described how proud he was of his family and his anticipation of soon reuniting with those who had passed on. He had the same anticipation of having a heavenly reunion with our parents and other siblings. May it all be as wonderful as he described! Eldon Budge

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Uncle Ben was a great man and leaves behind a great legacy for his amazing family. He was a hard worker, earned his living in a honest way and did much for those he knew him and those who crossed his path. I hope his family can receive comfort during this hard time and know they are thought of often and loved. We miss you Ben SO much thank you for the memories and love. Love Ann Budge Cross
