“ Beth was truely an angel on earth and God let us be touched by her wonderful being for a short time before she was needed in Heaven. In my two years of knowing Beth, we became good friends and lunch buddies at work. I miss our talks, but find comfort in knowing that she is in a much better place. Hollis and family you are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Kimberly Morgan##imported-end##

“ Beth the world will be a much sadder place without you in it. You touched the lives of every person you came in contact with your smiles and always a kind word. I don't know why you were chosen to leave us so soon but God must have big plans for you. I know Heaven is happy to have you! You will be sorely missed.

“ If The Heart Of A Friend is a Window into Heaven, How Beautiful Heaven Must Be.
Beth was such a joy to work with, she always smiled and generated her own special sunshine, with both inner and outer beauty. My Prayers are for her Precious Husband and Family.
We will miss Our Bay Window, but find comfort in knowing that she is just beginning her Eternal Life.##imported-begin##Glenda Snow Freeman##imported-end## “ Beth's family - I'm so sorry to hear of Your loss. I worked with Michelle for many years and I know how much Beth was loved by her family.

I remember the stories of how Beth took up so much time with Amanda. I even met up with the two of them one afternoon at the beauty salon.

They were getting their hair and nails done together. I thought that was so special.

Love and Christ be with You.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to all family and friends that had the pleasure of knowing Beth. Beth was the kind of nurse that no matter how her day was going she would always take that extra minute to fluff a pillow or a lend an ear where needed. I took pride in working with her when I had the chance to. Her bedside manner was impeccable. She will truly be missed. What an angel!!!##imported-begin##Velvet Kelly##imported-end##

“ My heart is sad today at the thought of a wonderful nurse not doing what she loved and what she did so well. Beth is one of the good ones, one who always put others ahead of herself. She never complained about things, just went on with her work and helped other nurses with theirs. Rejoice today for she has just changed her home. Heaven has a new resident today. You are in my thoughts and prayers. May God bless you with his love and peace.##imported-begin##Annette Walker##imported-end##

“ Beth was one of the sweetest and most caring people you could ever know. She was not only pretty on the outside but the inside as well. If there was ever an angle on Earth it was Beth. She had a very special family ,and we all came to love each one of them. May God bless each of you during this time, and know that just knowing Beth was a blessing to us all.##imported-begin##Kaen Evans and 4 Park Tower Family##imported-end##

“ I have known Beth for several years & she was an extremely sweet person & an AWESOME nurse.... She was a beautiful person inside & out with an absolutely beautiful smile that always made you feel good about yourself even when you were down about something & always had an encouraging word for you...Beth we will miss you completely on IMCU & at ORMC..I Love you girl & you are now in the arms of Jesus holding you close to him! You NEVER gave up on me while I was in LPN school & every time I worked on your floor while I was a secretary then you ALWAYS explained & encouraged me to keep on going... Thanks for never giving up on me!!! There is no more pain for you!! My thoughts & prayers are with all of the family during this time. May God Bless each of you!!##imported-begin##Annette Brookins##imported-end##
