

Betsey Gilbreath

October 14, 1937 - September 29, 2016

Elizabeth (Betsey) Eades Gilbreath, 78, most recently of Sparta, GA, passed away September 29, 2016. She was born in Central City, KY and preceded in death by her parents, Ida and Herbert Leslie Eades, her loving husband Eddie W. Gilbreath, Jr., sisters Jane Eades Love, Martha Eades McClure and brother, Herbert Leslie "Bud" Eades Jr.

Betsey attended Columbia College where she studied Business Administration. A loving wife and mother, Betsey enjoyed being active in her families activities such as Boy Scouts, sports, camping and fishing. She was a member of various bridge clubs and the Southern Club of Pittsburgh, PA.

She is survived by her three children, Eddie W. Gilbreath, III of Altadena, CA, John R. Gilbreath and his Rebecca of Jefferson, GA; Elizabeth F. Gilbreath of Sparta, GA and two grandchildren, Shelby and Benjamin Gilbreath. A private service will be held at a later time.

Tribute Wall

FS

“ Dear Gilbreath children:

I realize it has been over a year since Betsey's death, but I wanted to tell you that I personally, and our high school class as a whole sure miss seeing Betsey at our reunions. We are planning one again on Memorial Day 2018 and if any of us are able to get there I'm sure we will miss seeing her. Everyone loved Betsey, she was always friendly to everyone, smiling all the time and a real classy lady. Everyone always asked about her!!

I apologize for writing so late after her death, but as I was planning our reunion, I have her obit in my folder and was reading it. My prayers to all of the family. I liked her a lot.

I promise you we will remember her.

*Freddie Smith
Central City High School
Class of 1955*

---

Freddie Smith - January 17, 2018 at 11:02 AM