Tribute Wall

“ To the Seibert family, I'm offering my sympathy. A comforting scripture and a wonderful hope to remember is at Revelation 21:4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain for the former things are passed away.##imported-begin##C.M.##imported-end##

“ Bill, Rose Mary and Family,
My heart hurts for each of you as you go through this, one of the hardest things we all have to endure in this life. May the love of God and those of us who loved her also, be of comfort to you and give you strength. My love and prayers for you all. Judy##imported-begin##Judy Batchelor##imported-end##

“ Mr. Bill,

In the days and weeks to come will be some emotional times to come, but I want you to know that we will be there for you. Dad called me from Ohio crying with the news and asked me to be there for him for you because of the friendship that ya'll share and the love he had for Mrs. Betty. She was a glorious and dear friend and a loving lady and I will always remeber that and cherrish it always. As for Ashton and Peyton; well you know what she meant to them as well as yourself. They love you both greatly. I just wanted you to know that you and the family are in our thoughts and prayers and we are here for you.

With All Our Love,

Ivy, Kimberly, Peyton, and Ashton##imported-begin##The Family of Ivy and Kimberly Smith##imported-end##

“ Bill, RoseMary & family: She indeed gave many smiles and act of kindness to friends. We became friends thru the Garden Club, and worship at church. Many visit in each other homes and swinging in the back yard enjoying a glass of ice tea. May God bless Bill and each of you.##imported-begin##Betty & Lonnie Smith Sr.##imported-end##
