“ I am number 7 of the 10 she birthed.Lucky #7.My mother and I was so much like one another, that over the years we found ourselves and eachother!I was at the end of her old life and at the begining of her new life.I believe I had a better understanding of her hopes and dreams in a way that no one else could.The things she had tought me just by being who she was gave me the tools to help her better understand herself.Compasion for everyone is what she put in my heart and soul.##imported-begin##pete hawkins##imported-end##

“ My prayers are with all-I am sorry i could not attend Aunt Bettys homegoing-you know how she use to correct me-just calling her Betty.-Even though i have been out of touch for several years with all of you-Buster-Cookie-Mike-Ricky-Kathy-Elain-and all of you guys-some of my fondest childhood memories were playing and being around my cousins. We had a good time spending the night at granddaddys and playing ball in the back yard-great times--I know how hard it is to lose a parent-the hurt never goes away-but somehow we and you too will carry on.Aunt Betty is in a better place now-and someday we shall see her again. I have been single for 22 yrs now-and i have a hard time keeping my house clean and cloths washed-i told mother not long ago i now have a better respect for your mom tring to raise all of you-so i think she did a wonderful job. I know life was hard for her-but God never left her and she is suffering no more and she cant wait to see all of you in her mansion. I love you all and look forward to seeing you again. “ Laura, Katie, and family, our hearts go out to you all.

There are no words to take away the feeling of loss but the memories of good times shared will dull the pain in time.

Remember moving day and her going through all the boxes? She told me about each little piece as we went through them. Every item had a memory for her and I'm so glad she shared those with me, along with many others throughout the years.

She will be greatly missed. Again, our hearts and our prayers are with you.###imported-begin###Linda & Christy###imported-end##

“ i consider myself very lucky to have had the chance to spend the last year with one of the most amazing woman to ever grace this earth. she taught me, comforted me, listened to me, talked to me, and above all loved me. She has touched my heart in so many ways. It is only because of nanny that i know and have been apart of a true family. I am really going to miss her while i spend the rest of my days on earth but i know that one day we will meet again in that wonderful place called heaven. Until then i will keep all the great memories close to my heart. love you nanny.##imported-begin##Tiffany##imported-end##
