“ This is one of those times that you knew the right words to say, and feel so foolish when you don't. I met [Aunt Betty] when she worked at 57 Short Stop. We became friends but like so many friends you seem to think they will be around for every but we know in our hearts that is not so. I used to at least pass her on the road and we would wave at each other. I will always have a special place in my heart for Betty she was so easy to talk with and really a down to earth woman.

There are no words I can to say to the family except that Aunt Betty will live on in your heart.###imported-begin##Faye###imported-end##
