“ Sending prayers to you all... sorry I couldn't be there today or yesterday... but I know she has fought a long battle and to know her for the short time I did was a great blessing. She was a terrific lady that my uncle Benji adored. May you all find comfort in GOD'S grace! ”

“ I only knew Betty during the time she was married to my brother Ben. She was a gentle, patient, and loving person and was there for Ben during his last years. She was generous and asked little from others in return. We all loved her, especially Ben's granddaughters and their families. I know she will be greatly missed by those she has left behind, but she no longer has to suffer any pain or sorrow. May God comfort you and give you peace in knowing that she is in a better place forever more.
