“ Dear Johnston Families,
Keeping all of you in our thoughts and prayers. Remembering Billie when she ran the flower shop in West Union, Ohio and as a greeter and associate at our local Walmart. She was always very friendly and greeted all with a smile and a cheery hello. She will be missed.
Sincerely,

“ I've known Billie since 2016. She had the sweetest spirit, and there is no doubt that she had a personal relationship with God. I cherish the time we served together and have missed her since her move from Plainview. (Myra Brooks)
