Tribute Wall

“ Billy,

I have not written a tribute to you out of respect for your children. I am only your step-daughter, but you have been like a real dad to me for 36 years. I was not ready to give you up. I know how much you missed Mom, But we needed you too. I loved you very much Billy. I miss you tremendously!! Losing you has been so hard Billy. I know you are with Mom now and for that Im so happy for, But we are selfish, we wanted you here, with us. I miss talking to you and laughing with you. We took you to Cherokee to be with Mom and it was just as hard to leave you there as it was when we left Mom, bUT YOU ARE BOTH FREE NOW. No more pain..No more sadness for you two. We hurt everyday thinking of you not being here with us. Both of you-I love you Billy !!Thanks for loving us. We were lucky to have 2 good parents. I felt honored to have You in my life.

I love you,

“ Rickey, Danny, Andy...So sorry about the loss of your Dad. I can remember so well when your Dad & Mom use to take you to Oak Grove Church (you guys were such good "little boys" is church because when one of you started to cut up he had a little switch in his shoe and he would pull up his pants leg and show you the switch. My prayers are with the Harris Family.##imported-begin##Carolyn Leverette-Searcy##imported-end##
