“ Uncle Billy, you will be missed by all. I know you are sporting your wings with all the family! Heaven now has you, Uncle Huey and Dad - Lord help those other angels... They have their hands full with you three.

I have so many memories of you from my childhood and with our home visits with my children! I remember you had been out one day and killed a rattle snake. You cut the tail off and gave it to Hank. He loved that damn thing.

I guess my favorite memories (you notice memories is plural) are all the corralizing (if this is a word) that you, Dad and Uncle Huey got into when we visited, but I also remember what a hardworking man you were, and how you loved you children, and Aunt Betty.

My song to you (just like I dedicated to my Dad) is Holly Dunn's "Daddy's Hands". Your Maryland family loves you and we are sad we can't be with everyone to celebrate/remember your life and mourn our loss. Soar free Uncle Billy until we meet again!!! We love you.

I love you Billy Miller, you were the best brother (in-law), I ever had. We shared so many memories through out the years when Joe Griffin was alive and even after his death. Joe and I really loved you. I am so sorry that you have left us, but at least you are with Joe and the rest of your brothers. Mother and Father. I will keep in touch with my sister Betty and she knows how much I love her.

I was so very sorry to hear of Billy passing, he was more than a brother-in-law he was my brother. Betty, I know what you are experiencing at this time, it makes me re-live the day my husband Joe Griffin, Jr., passed away I just did not know what to do it was like I was in a fog. You have the children lean on them and let them help you it is their time to do for you now. I love you

I put a picture on the system. It was taken at your house the last Christmas that Judy and Huey were together. The three on the couch Billy, Joe and Huey are all in heaven together.

*Your Sister,
Dorothy Gilmore-Griffin*
