“ I worked as a air traffic controller with Billy during his 25 years at BWI airport. After he retired he moved to Florida. I visited him nine to ten times at his condo on the beach in Cocoa beach. We fished the local places including the Indian and Banana rivers, Mosquito lagoon, the Sebastian inlet and the ocean when the wind was calm. We went on five 4-5 day fishing trips to Fort Pierce, Goodland near the Everglades and pine island on the west coast of Florida. I was with Billy when he caught his first snook, permit and The 150 pound Tarpon that he fault for two hours. On one visit to Cocoa Beach, I talked him into buying his white Chevy truck. I visited him in Georgia not long after he bought his house on the lake. We talked and laughed about our days at the airport and our fishing excursions. The picture titled Caption Billy that someone posted I took on one of our trips. Billy was one of the good guys and a great friend. I Will miss his laugh and the Facebook postings of what he fixed for dinner. Rest in peace GOOD BUDDY!

“ I worked with Bill at BWI airport and lived in Bowie where he used to live. He was a great guy and boy could he eat. I remember those big cheesesteaks we used to get at work. Half was a lot but he'd eat the whole thing no problem. I will miss following your food adventures and seeing your love for Magnum on fb. Rest in peace Billy.

“ My friend since 6th grade, and roommate in our 20's -from your self appointed God Father of beloved companion Magnum (I gave him the idea for the name from an inside joke we shared in the late 70's) I am heartbroken for The Smith brother's and extended family and friend's loss. I was honored to know you all these years, rest easy knowing your furry son is with a loving couple close to me so I can check on him. If you hear a great guitar player in heaven, it's probably brother Bart. Thank you for your service to our country and for being a friend I could count on. Rest Easy.

I've known Billy for a long time, since our 20's. We were friends for many years. He was a good man and I thank you for your service in the Navy and your years as an air traffic controller. I wish he didn't have to leave us so soon. Rest in peace Billy.
