“ There have been many State Troopers that passed through that barber shop door. We would come in for a fresh cut, or just come in to visit and hear the local politics. Mr. Bob & Mr. Howell were staunch supporters of law enforcement. Mr. Bob gave more than just a haircut, you learned about life and the proper way to live. There were many talks of men being men and the nostalgia of responsible men was kept alive by those 2 barbers. If there was an empty chair, you didn't mind waiting for your haircut because there was always something to talk about with the folks that came in. Friends, neighbors, and business people all came in while you were in there. It was just a good place to meet. Sometimes you get your haircut and sit back down in the waiting chairs to finish up a conversation. Mr. Bob's barber shop was an icon for this town. Everyone knew where Mercer's shop was. My hat is off to both men, for the years of service they provided (mostly standing on their feet) for this community. Mr. Bob, I hate to see you go, but you have earned this rest. Go in peace, my friend. SGT David W. Phillips GSP #211

“ I have often driven from Columbus to Milledgeville for the trip, a haircut from Howell and a visit with Bobby. His Barber Shop was one of those special places that capture an atmosphere unique to another era. There one could find the economic and social strata of the community as well as conversation on world, state and community affairs, informed and uninformed opinion, tall tales, joking, helpful hints, homegrown wisdom, how-to's and friends. Milledgeville has lost a good man and a friend to many. His days need to be remembered for the many good times that were there, the talks, sharing, visits, his statements of fact as he saw it, his willingness to stand for things dear to him, his loyalty and love to his wife and those close to him and his delivery of an unvarnished truth when that was called for. I will miss my friend and his presence and offer my condolences to his family and community. Men like Bobby are a rare commodity these days.

I Know Most Of Milledgeville Would Anxiously Await For The Baldwin Bulletin Every Week To See What Mr. Mercer Was Going To Say. One Thing Is For Sure, Whatever He Did Say Would Be Honest And Straight Forward! He Loved His Family And His Country With All Of His Heart! “ *The true heroes in our lives often walk and work humbly among us. Soldiers who go to foreign lands and defend our country and freedom in forgotten wars like Korea ; who believe that God's Word and the Constitution of our United States mean exactly what they say and try to impart these ideals by the way they live to the generations coming up. Men like Mercer who refuse to give in to the political correctness of our times and those who are trying to rewrite our history so as not to offend anyone. Shawn and family, please know that you are in our prayers and thoughts and rest assured that Mr. Bobby is by Mrs. Joyce's side in Heaven.
