“ I'm so very sorry to hear of the passing of Ms.
Brenda. I will always remember her as a sweet, kind lady. I have many memories of her from my time at Black Springs Church, and visiting the Mitchem home when I was younger. She will be greatly missed, but now she and Mr. Bob are together again. My deepest condolences to the family.

“ As we pray for comfort for the family, memories of Brenda goes back over 20 years. She was a volunteer for the Georgia Carpenter’s For Christ. Each summer and late fall, she would come to the Clear Creek Baptist Bible College, Pineville, KY, to do the Lord’s work, helping the college. One of our fondest memories of Brenda, was how excited she got, when it snowed. The little girl in her came out. She got a cardboard, made her a sleigh and would ride it down the hill. Her dedication and hard work will never go unnoticed. She became one of our family.
