

Brittany Hollis

October 2, 1986 - July 7, 2013

Brittany Nicole Hollis, 26 passed away Sunday, July 7, 2013 at her home in Eatonton, GA. Funeral Services will be conducted Friday, July 12, 2013 at 11AM in Williams Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Wayne Sheffield officiating.

She is survived by her parents COL (R) Don and Joy Hollis, her sisters Holly, Lyndsey, and Sarah and her Grandmother Nellie Hankins Hollis. She is also survived by several aunts, uncles, and cousins including Aunt Barbara King and Uncle James Spivey, Aunt Harriet Guthrie and Uncle Gene Guthrie.

Brittany was a beautiful young woman who possessed a magnetic personality along with a genuine love for people she cared for. She brought light and cheerfulness to every situation she encountered. She was scheduled to begin her sophomore year at Georgia Military College in August 2013, majoring in Business Administration. After graduation from GMC next year her plans for the future included her attending Central Georgia Technical College majoring in her lifelong dream of Cosmetology. She planned to open her own hair styling and cosmetic business with her earthly father. Brittany loved the Lord with all her heart after finding Him in 2011. She sought to seek His guidance and do His will in her life and today she is reaping the rewards with her Heavenly Father. For now, bye Britt, you may be gone, but you will never be forgotten.

“ May Brittany Hollis RIP, this young woman had her whole life ahead of her to live. I'm so sorry for this painful loss, there is no undertaking impossible for God. Please remember Jesus' whole-hearted concern for the weak was the same as his Father's feelings "Likewise it is not a desirable thing with my Father who is in Heaven for one of these little one's to perish. " Matthew 18:14. May Jesus' prayer in Matthew 6:10, as well be your firm hope for the future, "Let your Kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in Heaven, also upon Earth." Psalms 115:16; John 5:28,29; Psalms 37:10,11

“ While searching for another obituary I saw you lost your daughter and I wanted to send my condolences. My sincere sympathies are with the family, during your time of mourning, May the tender mercy that God has always shown be with your family now so you will know that you are not alone and may the prayers of others help in some small way to bring you strength, comfort and courage each day . Many words will be expressed, yet we know God can and will express and provide to you and your family everything that is needed to care and sustain your hearts at this sad time. Isaiah 41:10,13.

“ I have known Brittany for 19 years, since we were 7 years old. We met playing our very first years of softball. Me and Brittany grew up the bestest friends and became very close. We share so many memorable times together, to many to count. We grew up and went to separate schools and grew apart from each other. I never stopped loving Brittany nor stopped thinking of her often. We lost touch over the years but eventually found our way back to each other. We didn't talk much nor have I seen her lately but I love her and miss her very much. I pray one day we will be reunited again and will be able to look back on all the great times we had together. I love you Brittany and you will be forever missed by me and many many others. I can still hear your laugh, it was like no other. i gonna miss that sound. Rest in peace sweet baby... Shine bright up there girl, love you!!!!
