“ Heyy papa is your granddaughter Chloe. There is so much i wish i could tell you in person for the last time but now you're in a better place. It's been so long since you left. Well i started college in august it's not going the best but im trying. I finally met a sweet guy who truly means the world to me and he treats me really good. I wish you could meet him. But i hope your watching from up there and seeing me become a better person. I think you would have loved him i really want me and him to last. I hope you know there is not a day that goes past where i don't think about you. I love you papa

“ Ms. Helen & Family, knowing that his suffering has come to an end, your healing will now begin. Although words may be of little comfort at this very difficult time, know that the children "your route" whose lives you have touch over the years are also saddened by your loss and the loss of not having and seeing you. They rejoice in knowing that they will see you again just as you will Buddy. “ Helen, Eddie, Sheila and families, I love you all and have enjoyed the good times we've all had with the get togethers with Buddy. We are going to be lost without him. I go back and think, "Who's going to do the cooking now"? He always enjoyed that. Buddy appreciated everything everybody done but now he's resting in peace. He's fought this diabetes so long that he decided to quit and I think he just wanted to take a load off of all of you. Of course, what you all did for him, you were willing to do it forever. But, you know how Buddy was, he didn't want to be a burden on anyone. Thanks for all the good times with him and I love you all. The Balm of God's Love

*When we lose someone we love
The loss seems too great to bear
God sends us friends to comfort us
To show that He deeply cares
But in the dark hours of the night
When there's nobody else around
When we feel the saddest and loneliest
It's there God's love can be found
It's like a soothing, healing balm
To soothe our broken hearts
The healing oil poured over us
That flows into every part
We can rest secure in God's love
And know He's by our side
He holds us when we feel as though
A part of us has died
We can know that God will listen
When we just want to talk
And when we feel we need to cry
We can share it with the Lord
For He is always waiting there
Ready with arms open wide
As we pour out the hurt within
He pours His love inside
Our Father above loves us so much
And will never leave us alone
He will not forsake us in our need
To face this on our own
He comforts us and strengthens us
And rubs us with His balm
And as the dawn breaks through the night*

We'll awake in His loving arms.
