“ Peggy, I am very sorry for your loss. I remember when I saw Buford one day at the Milledgeville Mall and I told him he sure did look like Bert Reynolds. He looked at me and smiled and said "Say you really think so." From then on I always kidded him about winning the contest for Bert. Everytime I would see him at the post office, he would always speak with a smile. Peggy, Just know that God is with you and your family in this time of sorrow. “ My dear Peggy, No words are right. Mine and Darrell's hearts are broken for the pain your family is going through. I know that Buford and Sarge are sitting somewhere cool and beautiful. I can hear him now talking to Sarge and telling him what has been gong on since he left us. Maybe even Lillie was hanging out with Sarge so Buford is rubbing her ears to. Just know he is healed and in no more pain. You remember that we all love you and are here for anything you need. The days to come are going to be hard for your family, but God will lift you up and give you the strength to put each foot forward each day. The sun will shine on your dark days again and we thank God that we have you.
