In Loving Memory of Cal G. Marsh

July 19, 1956 – August 8, 2025

Cal G. Marsh, a beloved husband, son, brother, uncle, and devoted servant of God, passed away peacefully on August 8, 2025, surrounded by the love of family and faith. His life was marked by deep compassion, unwavering faith, and a heart always open to those in need.

Born on July 19, 1956, to John Thomas Marsh II and the late Margaret Watts, Cal was one of three children. He is survived by his loving wife of 45 years, Trisha Marsh, with whom he shared a deep and abiding love. Their marriage was a true partnership—filled with faith, adventure, and a shared mission to serve others. He is also survived by his father, John Thomas Marsh II; his brother, John Thomas Marsh III; and his sister, Stacy Marsh Wynn.

Cal leaves behind a legacy of faithful service to the Lord and a life devoted to shepherding others into discipleship. He is remembered by his family—especially his many nieces and nephews, each of whom he loved and treated as his own children.

Cal was a hard-working and skilled man. He began his career as a deep sea diver and repairman, a role that reflected his courage and willingness to face challenges head-on. He later dedicated the majority of his professional life to Georgia Power, where he was respected for his diligence, reliability, and integrity.

Above all, Cal was a man of God. He followed Jesus Christ wholeheartedly and lived a life of service. He prayed for the sick, officiated weddings and funerals, counseled those in need, and ministered to anyone seeking comfort or direction. Cal often said it wasn't his love, but the love of Christ shining through him. He was generous with his heart, time, and wisdom—touching countless lives and leading many into a deeper relationship with Jesus.

He loved his wife, Trisha, with every fiber of his being. Together, they shared countless adventures, standing side by side in faith and love. Their life together was a true testament to the power of partnership rooted in Christ.

Cal's legacy is one of humility, faith, and unwavering love. He will be deeply missed, but the light he shared lives on in the hearts of those he touched.

A Funeral Service will be held on Thursday, August 14, 2025 at 2 PM in the Williams Funeral Home Chapel with the family receiving friends at from 1 PM until the service time. Burial will follow in Heritage Memorial Park. For those who wish, memorial contributions may be made to Tunnels to Towers.

“ I'll never forget playing golf with my brother and Cal at the Cabbage Patch in Augusta as a young person(12 or so) and Cal nailed his drive and the ball hit a golfer square in the back in the group ahead of us. He apologized but I'm sure they still felt it the next day.

“ My deepest sympathy for your loss Trisha. There was so much love between the two of you and it was a special love. I am praying for your broken heart and for all that loved him. He was a great friend of many people but mostly to you. You loved him for a long time and I know you will miss him terribly. May God comfort you in the days ahead and give you strength and love that only he can give. I love you my dear friend.
