“ Ralph B. and Angela Waller send our deepest sympathy and condolences to the Harris family. Carl Harris was a life long friend of mine and my family. He was the first person to let me drive his first car that he owned. I was a tall youngster at twelve and I did not know nothing about driving a push button gear operated Plymouth car, and that experience did not end well. I decided to wait a few more years before I attempt to back a car up at night. Also, when I was growing up, we played football, softball, and basketball with the older guys in the neighborhood. Later on, I worked at Georgia Power's Plant Branch with him about thirty plus years and still he was active at work like he was in the neighborhood. He was one of the young people role model in the hood that took up time with the young people and took some of them with the older guys to hang out, to ride around to go out to play basketball against other neighborhoods's teams. Rest in Peace, my friend, and coworker.

“ Hello Family, it's been a long time since we talked or seen each other, at Freddie Harris' funeral, when Carl and Carlene promised to keep in touch, and so did I. This was kind of strange we made promises we kept for a short time; I thought of those two often and talk to Carlene and ask about the family and how they were doing. Two weeks ago, I thought of calling Cousin Carl and say "remember, we, were going to keep in touch? But don't worry, I will when we get to heaven and see his mother, father, and the rest of the heavenly saints. What I loved about my cousin he spoke with his eyes and was slow to speak. Carl took me to the movies for the first time I couldn't believe how big the people were on the screen. He thought that was so funny. I got mad because I had to use my money to pay for us. Now you know he did have a great sense of humility. I am so glad we had him in our lives; please remember to mention we have Jesus for the rest of us forever and ever. Rest Carl, God has total control, remember family, God is our "On Time God. Cousin Peggy Parks - Harris, Augusta, GA.

Carl was my cousin and when I came to Georgia from Philadelphia, I could always count on him to pick me up from the train station. I stayed at his house and we would converse well into the night. If I didn't get a Christmas card from no one else, I knew that his was coming. Although we didn't get to see each other a lot, I will always remember his laughter and generosity. God has him now and we were all blessed to have known him. Praying for his family..... cousin, Dee, Philadelphia, Pa.
