“ Pam and Bill, your precious mom is indeed a blessing and presence to us all as well as both of you and you both are a tribute to her gentle and Godly nature. You all are in our prayers and thoughts and we love you so much. Mrs. Carol was one of the first to welcome me back to the church when we started back. I think she said, well ken, it's time- it's been about 20 years! and gave me that precious big smile! and this precious soul will do it again for all of us when we go home to Jesus!
