Jan I am Troy her youngest son. I am sorry that I just saw this and am late in responding. My Mom was the most amazing woman of Faith that I have ever known. She had a passion and trust in the Lord that was incredible. I saw faith in action being her son. She stood in the gap no only for me and my siblings but for so many people. She refused to see my as the sinful man I was but saw as the Lord wanted me to be and its that faith the brought me to the Lord. Thanks for loving her!!

“ I did not know this woman and she did not know me but I have heard that she showed care and concern for my brother and I when we were orphaned many years ago. That story has resonated with me. It is a special kind of compassion to grieve for children you don’t know and to,pray for those children but I hear she did just that and I am thankful for that and the fact that she gave me my southern siblings and raised them to be the wonderful additions to my life that they have become. Heaven is a little more Heavenly because of the new addition! Rest Peacefully

I knew Carolyn thru her son Troy. She must have been touched by God as she touched so many others. Joy, love, mercy, grace and all the fruit of the Spirit of God seems to describe this beautiful lady. She is for eternity with the Lord she loves, I pray those who knew her intimately receive her continuing love and peace of our Lord thru this time .
