“ My Great Aunt Catherine was one the sweetest and funniest ladies I have ever known. I am thankful for the opportunity to interview her a few years ago about her childhood and life for a college assignment. I will always admire her independency and positive attitude.

When I was little she kept my sister and I at her house. She let me play with a porcelain doll from her childhood and I broke its foot. I was so upset. She glued the foot back on and gave it to me for Christmas about 15 years later!
