“ Ron was my brother, friend, confidant. We had grown so close with him living nearby. His one desire in life was to retire and have some peace and happiness for a few years before his leaving this earth. God however, had other plans for him. He lived a good life and enjoyed life. I know he will be missed by all of his family. I will miss him terribly for a long, long time. The times when he called and we talked about everything for over an hour, the times he called and said Hey Rosie, I'm bring a boston butt over this afternoon, or ribs, or etc. He was a giving person, always cooking and giving these to friends and neighbors and helping others all the time. My heart aches and I've cried a gallon o f tears for his leaving, but I know he would not come back to this crazy world we live in and that he is rejoicing with the others we have lost in Heaven. Good-bye my sweet brother until I see you again. Jim and I loved you very much. Sherry, Farah, Fisher, Brookes and all the rest who shared the times of food and fellowship at our home. Our brother Tommy and Celete were here Christmas and Thanksgiving and we would not take a million dollars for this blessing. God set this all up for us to be together one last time and we will love and miss you. Until we meet in Heaven we love you

“ I remember when my cousin Ronald lived in Warner Robins. Ronald was about 12 years older than me but he was always glad when we came up to visit him and Tommy and aunt Louise and uncle Cecil. I still remember that Pontiac gto he had. I thought it was the coolest car ever. Ronald you will always live in my memories. Fly high my cousin, and I will again see you one day soon
