“ Had the joy of knowing Charles when he Married my friend Glenda. Such a sweet personality and friend. A true GENTLEMAN in every way. Our friendship was all to short. I treasure the joy of knowing him even this short time. He was always smiling. God made and extraordinary person when HE created Charles Barfield. To God Be The Glory for this gift to us.

“ Glenda, my heartfelt sympathy to you and Charles's! family! I so enjoyed getting to know Charles when I met him with you at our church(First Baptist of Valdosta! It was so ovipositor how very happy you both made each other! I am so glad you had the opportunity to share the trips you made together! I am so glad that I stopped in Milledgeville to see the condo on Lake Sinclair and out the door you both walked! His wonderful character showed when he offered to pick up your grandchild from school so we could visit! You certainly have good memories and I know you will cherish them! God bless you, sweet friend!!
