“ What wonderful Christams Eve dinners we shared at the Cyndi and Carlos Berenguer home in Milledgeville through all the years since Charles and Susan Berenguer Hansel married. I always enjoyed talking to Charles and especially was glad to learn that he liked English literature! He was a good "in-law" (I'd rather call this brother-in-love) to Cyndi and Carlos. And I, as Cyndi's mother, moved next door to the Berenguers with a very sick husband, the Rev. Grover D. Jones (1925-2011). Then we saw you much more often than just two or three times a year--and the "big" Christmas Eve "Cuban-style" dinner we shared at Cyndi and Carlos's house on Christmas Eve. Then the CAROL SING! We were too full to sing very well after eating-ourself-crazy over the good food. But we did make a "joyous sound" and probably our neighbors could have heard us, the piano, and all the voices--but it was usually too cold on Christmas Eve to open doors and windows. Anyway, fun-times remembered. God bless the family, and Charles, we pray we'll see you in glory. This Pandemic called COVID-19 make make our homegoing "sooner than we think,"--like your massive heart attack was "sooner than we thought" for you. Love to all the family. -Ethelene Dyer Jones

“ Charles,

We hadn't hung out in like a hundred years, but I still consider you one of my most colorful friends. I remember when we met, we were both "Kmartians"; you were still banging up cars in High School and I was older and banging them up in college! I was immediately drawn to your irreverent humor - there are many, many memorable things you said and did that still make me chuckle. You'll always be the "Chief of the Silly Police" in my book, and I mean that in the most esteemed way possible. Thanks for the memories!!! I hope I catch you on the other side and we'll have a good laugh!!!

To Charles family and friends, my sincere condolences. I know it's very difficult to laugh right now. I hope you are comforted in the knowledge that Charles had a positive and lasting impact on other peoples' lives.

“ Charles was like our brother. He lived with our family during our teen years and he was right between my younger brother and my age. He always had a twinkle in his eye, a hug for your neck, and always gave so much love to everyone lucky enough to encounter him. He was so precious when we lost Mama last year and made sure to check in on Garnett. Please accept our sincere condolences Sasha, Susan, Arial, Alec, and all of his loved ones. We will miss him so much.
With all of our love,
Mary Ann (Grant) Scott, Garnett Grant and Family.

“ Charles and I worked together at CSH and I loved him! He kept me smiling and laughing even when there wasn't much to laugh about. He was delightful to work with and I always appreciated him asking me if there was anything he could do to help me out...he will be missed by many!!!
