“ Wayne,

We are so sorry for your loss! Even though I personally did not have the privilege of knowing your Daddy, Shane has told me many stories about him and what a wonderful man he was! Please know that we are keeping you close in our thoughts and prayers, and may God comfort you as you go through this difficult time. We Love You.

“ Mr. Johnson's Obituary doesn't begin to tell you what a fine man he was. There simply isn't enough room or time. He believed in his community and he made sure many of us had food. He dedicated over 40 years of service to our local fire dept. He showed up for every training and every call that went out. Mr. Johnson was a great role model for our children and he will be greatly missed.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death; restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalm 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.- Matthew 5:4.

Mr Johnson loved his community and truly cared for his neighbors. When he knew of someone being ill, he would check on them frequently and most times he came carrying a sack full of vegetables. When he asked after you or your health, it wasn't an idle question... He honestly cared. He was a reminder of earlier times, when men knew what it was to be a neighbor. He was a tribute to our community and a blessing to all of us. To the family: Our hearts and prayers go out to you, may God comfort you in the days ahead.

“ To Lee, Wayne & family, We want to extend our sympathy for your loss. Todd remembers the days of coon hunting with Charles and I remember Charles from his coming to Rheem to see Lee (and pick on me a little). Lee, we love you all and will keep you guys in our prayers for a long time to come! I know it has to be hard losing a spouse, but especially one that you spent SO many years with. God will embrace you and get you through this difficult time. We know that Charles had a good heart and is in a better place. Wayne, I know you worked hard doing CPR on your dad, but the truth is-- no one can keep a loved one on Earth when it's their time to go. Please be at peace with yourself. Call on us anytime when needed, day or night.
