“ Charlie has been my "Dad" since I was 17yrs old and I will always appreciate the things he taught me and things he did for me and the rest of our family. My sister, Sharon Moore, introduced my Mom, Irene Carter, and me to this tall italian named "Catfish". We became his family from then on out until several years after he moved to the Ga War Vets home. He watched my children grow up, Leann Shurley & Serena Ethridge, and also taught them important things for a good life. He was very loved and will be greatly missed. He deserves to rest in peace.....love you Charlie. Your "daughter"
