“ Jean, please know that I am hear for you whenever you need anything, even if it is just a good two ears to listen. Just talking to someone willing to listen has gotten me through many hard days along my way. I loved Charles so much and got to know him while he was temporarily at nursing home in Franklin. i would try to go every day and on pretty days he would love to be wheeled outside so we could sit in the sunshine and talk. I know that he was what I would call a hero in the fight again Parkinson Disease because he volunteered to be "guinea pig" and let them try experimental drugs on him. He said that it may not help him but may lead them to something that would help someone later on. He was a giant of a man with a heart of gold. The disease had taken such a toll on him and I know that he is now completely whole again and just like he was in the prime of his life.

“ I'm so sorry to hear this. I remember when I was moving from an apartment in Jonesboro to my new home. Charles got help and made sure my piano was moved safely into my house. He seemed so happy to do the task and it meant so much to me. Gloria Wright

I am so sorry to learn of Charles' passing. I learned so much from him throughout my career, working under his senior guidance in Atlanta. He was a very brilliant, wise man. As a native of Mississippi, I appreciated his great hospitality and genuine care for others. My late husband also loved Charles and helped him with his termite job back in the 1990's. He has been greatly missed since his retirement, and I'm sure will always be missed by his family.
