“ Mark, deepest sympathy and many prayers for you, brothers, and other family. Mr. Charles surely lived a good life and you all have fond memories of this awesome man you were blessed to have for so long. Mark, your Dad was surely blessed beyond measure having you and Jaimie to care for him. You both went the extra mile to see his needs were met on a daily basis. That’s exactly what Jesus expects us to do for aging parents. Praying you all find comfort in the love of God.
