“ Most of my memories of Uncle Charlie are from my early childhood. He was amazing and so much fun. He, and another uncle on mom's side used to play with us when we lived in Rock Island , Illinois— about the time that they both were drafted. The silly games they played would not be understood today, but we all loved them. I haven't seen him for many years but he has)and will) always hold a special place in my heart.

“ Charlie was more of a brother than a brother in law. When he came home from Vietnam and started dating my sister on his way to work he would put cinnamon suckers in the mailbox for me. In my school annual he wrote you're still the prettiest pea picker I've ever seen. Love my Charlie.
