“ Soon it will be 6 mo since my brother Charl left us. We all miss him so much. He was the strength that held the family together. I miss him everyday and know that he is watching over us. I still cannot believe my big brother, my friend, my person who shared all the good and bad times with me is gone. He will be my guardian angel forever. Love you Charl

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Hansel family. I regret to say that I did not know of your relationship with Charlie, even though I knew you all. Charlie always took great care, whether it was a vehicle service or EMT job. May God comfort you during this time. Please call if you need anything.

Charlie was always doing things his way, His battle with cancer was no different. He left this old world only when he felt the time was perfect. God blessed me with having Charlie as a friend !!May God wrap his arms around all his family and let them know He is a loving God.Goodbye my friend.

Charlie Brown the service man. I first met Charlie 20 yrs. ago when he move down from New York. He will be missed. I counted on him over the years for a number of car related things. You know when you can call on somebody to help you and they never ask for anything in return that was Charlie Brown. I will miss him. We pray for him and his family.. Godspeed Charlie Brown.

Charlie was a automobile service department manager when he aspired to become an EMT. Although He still remained as a service dept. manager, He worked EMS on his weekends off. He continued to work even as He battled cancer. Charlie refused to give in to cancer even up to his last days. Sveral of us at EMS gave Charlie his last ambulance ride home to be at rest on Hospice care. It was an honor to be able to do this for Charlie and to say a personnal good bye. He loved working in EMS and he set a standard for us all in service excellence in the EMS community. He will be missed, but I am sure Charlie will be enlisting in EMS work in Heaven as soon as he finishes God's orientation program.
